

over one.

RECOMM

Parties of Chu

nn Bo
m and
out ins
ul to su
r and us
ualled b fectual a
or of "Port
s' Harp, beca
extant.
this new
ell Mas
ion Col
the ex
ne "Sac
s in Mel
adopting

Bass

Praise the Lord ye heavens adore him Praise him angels in the height, sun and moon rejoice before him raise him all ye stars of light Amen Hallelujah, Amen

Bass

Oh happy is the man who hears Instructions, warning voice And, who Celestial wisdom makes his early choice

Golden Hiss S.M.

Masons' Sacred Harp.—Having used this truly excellent collection at the Baker Street Baptist Church, we are confident that for elegance of taste, ease of execution, and adaptation to promote and cherish a love for sacred music, it is decidedly the work of the kind with which we are acquainted.

From Mr. Hamilton of the Methodist Episcopal Church, director of Music in the Methodist Church, Wheeling.

We are using 'Masons' Sacred Harp,' &c. in our church. I should be much pleased to see it in general use—the music will please and improve the lovers of sacred song. The tunes are well suited to the different variety of metres, and it is a desirable collection for churches and schools.

From Mr. Thomas J. Orr, Teacher of Singing in the Methodist Church.

I am using 'Masons' Sacred Harp,' and consider it superior to any work I have seen. It is admirably adapted to the use of schools; and from the sacred character of the pieces, the purity of the melodies, and richness of harmony, it is preeminently calculated for the cultivation of correct musical taste.

From Mr. Harris, Teacher of Sacred Music at Columbus.

'Masons' Sacred Harp' has not an equal, and I intend introducing it into my school as fast as possible.

